FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Salt & Char Jockey Burger Raises $2500 and Awareness for Disabled Jockey Fund!

Saratoga Springs, NY – September 5, 2019 – Salt and Char Restaurant by The Adelphi Hotel, is proud to announce the success of its 1st Annual Jockey Burger fundraiser to benefit The Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF)!

For each week during the recent Saratoga racing season, a special “Signature Jockey Burger” was created by a famous jockey in collaboration with Salt and Char’s Executive Chef Chris Bonnavier. It was then featured on its menu with 25% of the proceeds being donated to the charity.

“I and my family hold a very special place in our hearts for the Disabled Jockey Fund and share a deep respect for the invaluable work they do” says Larry Roth, who along with owning The Adelphi Hotel and Salt & Char, is the Owner of LNJ Foxwoods Stables that matched the $1,250 raised bringing the total donation to $2,500.

To kick off the 7-week series, the legendary Angel Cordero hosted a draw party on the Salt and Char veranda, along with six surprise guest jockeys, to determine which week their burgers would be featured. Other participating jockeys included Junior Alvarado, Luis Reyes, Jose Ortiz, Irad Ortiz, Manuel Franco and Johnny Velasquez.

“We are very grateful to our terrific patrons who joined us in support of this worthy cause” says Patrick Toomey, Director of Restaurants for The Adelphi Hotel, further adding that “PDJF provides financial assistance to jockeys who have suffered catastrophic on-track injuries. I am proud to announce that together with Angel, the other jockeys and LNJ Foxwoods, our 1st Annual Salt and Char Jockey Burger Series raised $2,500 and awareness for this commendable organization and look forward to our 2020 event with unbridled enthusiasm!

Angel Cordero also shared “I look forward to working together with my friends at Salt and Char for many seasons to come to help my fellow jockeys who have suffered greatly”.
